

2011 REPRESENTATIVE TRANSACTIONS

Polytop, an innovative leader in the design and manufacturing of dispensing closures

has been acquired by

MeadWestvaco Corporation, a global leader in packaging solutions

Duffy & Sweeney served as counsel to Polytop Corporation.

Neptune-Benson, a recognized leader in the design and manufacture of aquatic components

has been acquired by

The Audax Group, a premier investor in middle market companies

Duffy & Sweeney served as counsel to Neptune-Benson.

Numark, the world's leading manufacturer of DJ and musical instrument technology has acquired

Alto Professional, a producer of products for use in live performance settings

from

Seikaku, a leading professional audio products manufacturer

Duffy & Sweeney serves as general counsel to Numark Industries and its affiliates.

Adding value through cost-effective strategic, legal and business counsel to middle-market businesses and their owners.

Teknikor Energy Solutions LLC, a division of Teknikor, provider of mechanical energy management solutions

has been acquired by

Horizon Energy Solutions

Duffy & Sweeney served as counsel to Teknikor.

Economy Spring & Stamping

has been acquired by

Matthew Warren Inc., the second largest manufacturer of springs and specialty fasteners in North America

Duffy & Sweeney served as counsel to Economy Spring and Stamping.

For more information on our middle-market mergers-and-acquisition practice, contact Michael Sweeney.