MATTHEW M. PHILLIPS, ASSOCIATE

OVERVIEW

Matthew Phillips joined the firm in May of 2018 as an attorney in the Business Law practice. Previously, he worked as a Senior Privacy and Compliance Auditor for Lifespan where he focused on HIPAA compliance, mitigating risk and meeting regulatory requirements for the comprehensive healthcare system.

Prior to his role at Lifespan, Matt was hired as Special Counsel by Boston Financial Data Services, where he was part of the legal team working on a comprehensive document review involving Anti-Money-Laundering and Know-Your-Customer compliance for the federally regulated institution.

He served as law clerk for a Florida-based firm specializing in criminal law and completed an externship in the corporate law department for Omniangle Technologies, also in Florida.

Matt was a Sergeant in the United States Army, serving as a paratrooper for four and half years. He also was deployed to Afghanistan in Operation Enduring Freedom 2010.

Matt was active as a volunteer with Educate Tomorrow, a Florida-based non-profit committed to helping foster children go to college and support them into early adulthood.
